

ECSG 2017 Badminton Briefing : Open Class

47 teams will compete in the ECSG Ghent 2017 Open Class Badminton.

Including 8 Belgian, 1 French/Belgian, 8 French, 28 German, and 2 Maltese Teams. Teams have been appointed a team number and are put into pools so that multiple teams of the same company won't meet each other in round 1.

Each match has 4 games (Men's Single, Woman's Single, Mixed double, Men's Double), each game is played best of three sets up to max. 21 (first at 21 wins). Every match has a winner, in case of equal games, sets and points teams will draw a winner.

12 Courts are used for the competition, courts will be appointed as they become free (and according to the competition table). 24 Teams need to start at 09:00 am. (see table below) So there is no fixed time-schedule. Matches need to start within 5 min after a court is appointed.

Teams will receive a score sheet, they need to fill in this sheet and return it (signed) at the end of the match.

There is one shuttlecock/match. Broken shuttles must be put in a box next to the fields. You should use these to warm up. Return any remaining good shuttles.

There is no official "lunch time" or "break". Around noon you can buy a quick snack at the bar.
